

42505 MORTEN

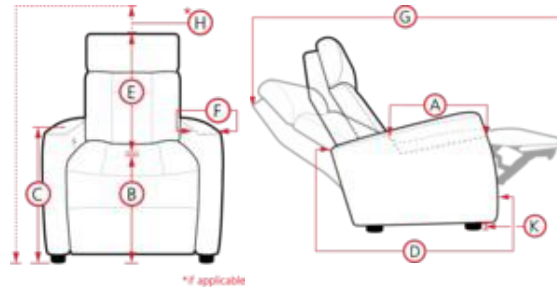

The sleek, sophisticated Morten recliner takes advantage of modern technology. Showcasing how high-motion technology is not limited to a traditional form, the Morten seamlessly incorporates motion into what looks like a stationary chair. Perfect for anyone who will not compromise on style but wants the comfort and function offered by a recliner. The Morten looks at home in a modern environment. The seat features premium webbing allowing for the streamlined aesthetic and stationary silhouette. When seated, layers of multi-density foam on the back and seat rests support the body, even over extended periods of time. The Morten is available with a sleek brushed chrome sled base and in either power or manual activation for maximized convenience. The manual version functions by pressing back with your body, while the power version is controlled by a brushed metal activation switch that incorporates a USB charging port to help keep all your devices charged and ready to go.
